

Come Have a Chat with Us!
The 9th iCeMS Café

The burning heat of the sun seemed to last forever this summer.
Have you ever wondered if all of those rays could be put to good use?

Plants make very good use of the sun's energy.
Humans are also now trying to make direct use of sunlight.

But...
Will we someday be able to use it anywhere we please?
Can it be made to look more -- fashionable?

Behold: the future solar battery work of the Imahori team.

Sat., December 11. 2010 14:00-15:30
at 2nd Floor Lounge, Main Building, iCeMS Complex1
Right at the "Kyodai Seimon-Mae" city bus stop
