

The 36th iCeMS SEMINAR

CeMI Seminar Series 10

Leica Scientific Forum Kyoto Series 3

Fri 27 Nov 2009
10:30-11:30

Lecturer: Prof. Shimon Weiss

Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry
California NanoSystems Institute (CNSI)
(CNSI is a partner institution of iCeMS)
University of California Los Angeles

Multiscale, Superresolved, Ultrasensitive Optical Molecular Imaging

Venue: 2nd floor Seminar Room (#A207)
Main Building iCeMS Complex 1
Kyoto University

Prof. Shimon Weiss will overview the utilization of single-molecule and superresolution imaging tools to the study of molecular machines, interactions, and circuits in-vitro, in live cells and in small organisms.

After the seminar, an informal get-together over lunch will take place at the Lounge, next to the seminar room. Please join us for more discussion with Prof. Weiss.
